News Briefs

CHICAGO (AP)—Former governor Joe Foss of South Dakota, ace Marine flyer of World War II, today was named commissioner of the new American Football League.

The 44 year old Foss signed a three-year contract at an undisclosed sum.

Foss served in World War II, when he became the first pilot since Eddie Rickenbacker to shoot down 20 enemy planes in the Pacific campaign, and also served in the Korean War.

"The headquarters of the American Football League will be in Dallas," Foss said. "Our new league will work together with the National Football League and I firmly believe there are enough players to go around and also enough spectators to watch 'em." Selection of Foss was announced at a press conference held by Lamar Hunt of Dallas and Harry Wismer, founders of the new league.

NEW YORK (AP)—Frankie Carbo was sentenced today to two years in the city penitentiary on his plea of guilty to an undercover role in professional boxing. Carbo, 53, labeled as the underworld czar of professional boxing, had pleaded guilty Oct. 30 to three counts of a 10-count indictment.

He admitted one count of conspiracy, one count of acting in a boxing match as a manager without a license, and one count of acting as a matchmaker without a license.

TRENTON, N.J. (AP)—Criminal conspiracy charges against five drug manufacturers accused of fixing prices on Salk antipoli vaccine were dismissed today by U.S. Dist. Judge Phillip Forman.

Forman cut short a trial of the month with the Martin Pools and Luther Holloman.

Dana Shiver and Miss Katherine Phelps of Marshall, Texas, visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shiver Sunday.

Miss Joan Rae Dodd of Little Rock was the guest of Lt. Frank Horton, Miss Mary Charlotte Horton and Mrs. and Mrs. F. M. Horton on Thanksgiving.

La. Bill Blake of Ft. Benning, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Troutman and Tandy of Atlanta, Ga., are visiting Mrs. W. N. Blake. Lt. Blake will remain here until Dec. 20 when he will be reassigned by the Army.

Mrs. Jimmie Miller of Little Rock, Mrs. Travis Vann of Magnolia and Mrs. Joseph Neumeister of Walton, Ky., and Miss Wilma Aboswell have been at the bedside of their mother, Mrs. Bennie Boswell, who is reported to be improving in a local hospital.

Miss Teresa Ann Howard of Dallas is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Comp.

Lt. and Mrs. James Holt and Todd of Biloxi, Miss., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Holt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burke have had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Calvin Burke, students at the U of A, and the Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Burke and Kim of Dallas.

The Foy Hammons had Miss Judy Hammons and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Welsh of Little Rock and Mrs. Roger Herod and children of Dallas as Thanksgiving guests.

John Wimberly of Kingsport, Tenn., will arrive Tuesday to see his mother, Mrs. J. W. Wimberly.

Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Honea were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Honea of Council Grove, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. John Honea and son and Mr. and Mrs. Max Halbert all of Little Rock, and Mrs. C. P. Mann. The Kansas Honeas returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Mouser went to Fort Smith last Wednesday. They spent the holidays with the Buford Poe family there and with friends in Van Buren.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wimberly of Searcy returned home Saturday after visiting Mrs. J. W. Wimberly.

Miss Beryl Henry of Benton spent the recent holidays in Hope with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Webb Walhall

On Thanksgiving Day at the First Baptist Church, Miss Dorothy Whitton and John Webb Walhall, brother of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Whitton, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Walhall of Garland, Texas.

The Rev. Ernest Whitton of Arkadelphia, brother of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony. Music was furnished by vocal soloist, Nathan McAllister of Van, Texas, who sang "Always" and the "Lord's Prayer" with Miss Scarlett Lammus, organist, of Lyndon, Texas. Jimmy Whitton, brother of the bride, lighted the candles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional wedding gown of white satin. It was fashioned with a portrait neckline and was made princess style. The long sleeves tapered to ruffled points over her hands. The veil of illusion fell from satin corded. The bride carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses atop a white Bible.

The couple was united in marriage before an altar decorated with white chrysanthemums, jade fern, and eucalyptus.

Mrs. Katherine Whitton, of Hope, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor, and another sister, Miss Betty Sue Whitton was the bridesmaid. They were identically attired in frocks of blue satin with matching bouquets in their hands. They carried nosegays of white chrysanthemums and eucalyptus.

Mrs. Mary Jane Whitton was her sister's flower girl. Dressed simply in a white dress, she carried a basket of white petals.

Guests for the wedding were Mrs. S. T. Watson of St. Louis, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Flowers and Miss Catherine and Carolyn Fancher, all of Little Rock, and Mrs. E. A. Whitton of El Dorado, Miss Lena Lee of Garland, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harlan of Hot Springs.

The bride and groom left for Tyler, Texas, after the wedding. They will make their home in that city.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mrs. S. T. Watson of St. Louis, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Flowers and Miss Catherine and Carolyn Fancher, all of Little Rock, and Mrs. E. A. Whitton of El Dorado, Miss Lena Lee of Garland, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harlan of Hot Springs.

State Revenues Show Increase

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State revenues showed a $324,355 increase during November over the same month last year.

Most of the increase was reflected in general revenues which were up $429,232.

Special revenues rose only $95,073.

The total tax collection for November was $12,257,970, compared to $11,933,614 in November, 1958.

Revenue Commissioner J. Deville Cheney said the November tax month lost three days because of Neither one could look me in the eyes. I was nearly crazy with worry. A week went by and I said, "Do you have something to tell me?"

They both tried to talk at once. After it as all over I found they had not gone all the way. They wanted my help, my trust and my understanding. I told them "It is not what we've done in the past that counts but what we are going to do in the future. I trust you."

You'll probably think I'm awfully stupid to trust them again. But I will. I also told them what necking leads to. Did I do right? —Anxious.

Dear Dorothy: You did exactly right. I wish there were more mothers like you!

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am 16, Jim and I became engaged 3 months ago. We had gone together one year. He asked my mother if we could become engaged. She said "yes," but lately everything we do she says it's wrong. Now he hardly ever comes over, and when he does, he leaves soon. We want to get married after we graduate from high school. We love each other more than anything else in the world. What shall I do? —L.

Dear L.: Your mother's irritability may be her way of expressing concern for you. You and Jim both sound pretty young to be thinking of marriage — even though it is a year off.

How about your and his education? Is high school the end of it? Has he a job? Does he earn enough to support two?

Forgive these practical questions but one must be practical if you want love to last.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My boy friend and I weren't going steady so I dated another fellow. My boy friend got angry — didn't I love him? I said "yes," which is the truth. He said he didn't want to see me any more. ("I started to cry. He started to cry, then both of us agreed that we shouldn't see one another again. Next day I was waiting for him when I got home. Would I marry him when I finished this school year? We asked my parents. They said yes. We planned a spring wedding.")

Now my boy friend comes to tell me we are through. I still love him. His face is before me. If I go out, I'm always either thinking or talking about him to the guy I'm with. Should I try to get him back or give him up for lost? —Marge.

Dear Marge: Any boy who says in one breath that he loves you and in the next, "Good-bye," isn't worth worrying about. You must know this in your heart or you wouldn't raise the question. You are young — don't jump the gun. Time enough to be serious in the years ahead. Your major concern now should be school. Go after those high marks. Be a first, not a second, and you'll attract a really worthwhile while boy. Remember: "When the half gods go, the full gods come." Aim for the stars!

the Thanksgiving holiday. Collections were totaled through Nov. 25. Usually, totals are figured through the 28th day of a month.

The largest single increase this month was in the sales tax which went from $4,241,342 in 1958 to $4,645,527, an increase of $404,184.

A $401,658 increase in gasoline taxes offset decreases in other special revenues. Gasoline taxes totaled $2,968,743 in November.

The tax total for the first five months of the 1959-60 fiscal year is $60,369,977, an increase of $3,745,350 over a similar period last year.

A trash fire spread to the rear of a downtown Russellville sporting goods store and flames destroyed half the building and contents.

James and Stanley Newton, owners of the store, made no definite estimate of loss but it was expected to run into the thousands of dollars.

No one was hurt in either fire.

REMOVAL PROTESTED.
HEIDELBERG, Germany (AP)—A Lutheran pastor, the Rev. Max Lackmann, who was rebuffed by his synod for holding views "too positive" toward the Roman Catholic Church, did not have a sufficient hearing or the right to appeal his case, another Lutheran pastor, Dr. Hans Asmussen, has protested.

5 Black Angus Heifers Purchased by Mrs. Freeda Greenan, Corn Belt Hatcheries Head

— Hope Star photos

ABOVE IS THE PRIZE ANIMAL IN THE FIVE-HEIFER SHIPMENT, photographed with Mrs. Greenan. The heifer's registry is Dor-Mac-Elsly, her dam being Eileenmore Burgess, and her sire Dor-Mac-Bardoliermere the 34th.

HERE ARE THE OTHER FOUR, SHAGGY COATS GLISTENING in a brilliant winter sun. All five are 2 years old, and all have been bred to a famous sire, Dor-Mac-Bardoliermere the 65th.

The five were purchased by Mrs. Greenan from her father, D. K. Roth of Roth Farms at Gibson City, Ill.

TO SHOW THE CONFORMATION OF THESE BIG BUT docile animals the Corn Belt crew tried to turn them tail-wise to the camera. They obeyed — all but one hard-headed heifer who insisted on facing the lens. The Editor said, "Let her go — she'll be good for a laugh."

Future Summit Meets Are a Possibility

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON, AP — It is possible that a summit conference between the Soviet Union and the United States will be held in the near future, according to a report from a source familiar with the situation. The report states that the two sides have been in talks for some time, and that a decision has been made to hold the conference in the near future. The source also stated that the conference would be held in a neutral location, and that it would be attended by high-level officials from both sides.

and. No longer ago than last summer he was talking against summit meetings and yearning for the good old days of foreign "hot" meetings. Later in the summer he made a last trip toward Western Europe to see the Allied leaders. He had been in the Soviet Union for some time, and he had been in the United States for some time. He had been in the Soviet Union for some time, and he had been in the United States for some time. He had been in the Soviet Union for some time, and he had been in the United States for some time.

the two men permitted them any way. And since this was the case, he reasoned, they might as well meet. Since only the two men — the heavyweights — could really decide anything, they had to meet and get along. This was what Eisenhower was saying in a statement. or two later there was a gigantic crash." Myron McGrath, manager of the local airport, said he understood there was at least one survivor.

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Allegheny Airlines plane with 25 persons aboard was reported missing today in the mountains near Williamsport, Pa. An airlines spokesman said the plane had not been heard from since it made a faulty approach to the Williamsport Airport then turned away.

First Chief A. Edgar Eschen of Williamsport said he had received reports that the airliner crashed into a mountain side. He said the report received on his emergency radio gave no details. A spokesman for Allegheny said the plane was en route from Philadelphia to Cleveland by way of Harrisburg, Williamsport, Bradford and Erie, Pa.

He said that the pilot last was heard from when he was cleared for landing at Williamsport at 8:41 a.m. EST.

Snow was falling at the time and visibility at Williamsport was low.

The spokesman said the pilot reported he was heading for a landing. Moments later the plane broke through the storm into sight over the airfield but turned away. The airlines spokesman said the pilot apparently wanted to make a new and better approach.

The plane, he said, was not heard from again. Those aboard included 22 passengers and a three-member crew, the airline said.

Mr. Churchill Pronounced in Good Health

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill's doctor pronounced his patient in excellent health today—the 35th birthday of one of the world's most amazing men.

The unannounced appearance of the doctor, Lord Moran, at Sir Winston's London house put faces upon expressions of reporters' smiles until Lord Moran emerged.

"Of course he didn't send for me," said the doctor in reply to questions. "I just called to offer my congratulations on his birthday."

Churchill's robust health — despite his age, two major strokes and two bouts of pneumonia — amazes everyone except some of his closest friends.

A spokesman at Churchill's home said the former prime minister would attend a birthday party — with a huge internationally flavored cake featured — for about 20 people at his home tonight.

"And he plans to attend Parliament before that," the spokesman added.

Egypt Barrows 56½ Million

eral way. But before the ministers even get into detail, there must be a general agreement. And, as Khrushchev points out, they can't agree on anything unless the top man at home says so.

That brings the argument back to Khrushchev. Since only the top man can really reach agreements, then let them meet, try to agree in a general way, and, having done that, turn the details over to the foreign ministers.

If the spring summit meeting proves fruitful at all, it will increase the pressure on government heads to meet more often. Even a failure wouldn't discourage future meetings.

One thing seems certain: That in the modern world the role of the foreign minister—as a settler of problems—will move further into the background while more of the spotlight stays on the top man.
